Complaint Info Comments	(Product Name: TOEFL) I paid $150 to take a TOEFL test provided by ETS on July 15. I went to San Luis Obispo which was about 5 hours away from where I live. Even though there were test centers close by, but all of them were fully booked until September. When I got to the test center, the staff asked me for my passport. She said that the policy was that ETS could only accept passport for test taker who was not a US resident/citizen. I was a foreign citizen and I brought a California driver's license. The staff said ETS would not give me any refund. If I wanted to re-schedule, I had to pay another $150, she said. I brought the receipt that was given online. The receipt was supposed to be 3 page long, but for some reason the printer only printed the first page. The policy would have been stated on the 2nd or 3rd page. I didn't realize this until the staff told me about it. I knew that if I took TOEFL in other country, I would have to bring my passport. However, since I have a legitimate ID provided by the State of California, I thought that was sufficient. I saw when other candidates tried to register, the staff only looked at the passport briefly and gave it back to the candidate. It is amazing that the staff could trust an ID made by a foreign country, but did not trust an ID made by her own government. I had to pay another $150 to schedule for another test. ETS never provided me any service, but it took my $150. Had ETS given a sufficient warning on its website, I would have brought my passport.

Complaint Info Comments	ICCC Ref # I0704061345567181:This is heresay, in that I have no real proof, but: Educational Testing Service (ETS)was running for some time a software programming to teach prositution with young people,(b)(6) was one of the chosen young adults. I think they were selected by HIV, but I could be completely wrong. ETS also hired space to a forgery expert who crafted documents and other papers as needed. He was also a young man, very thin, who resembled (b)(6) to some degree but was much taller. He had an apartment in Plainsboro and was well-off. I understand the job paid well in excess of $50,000/yr. The Mafia ran the software young adult program and the counterfeit expert. It is mostly heresay, but I believe the leadership may not have known the details of what went on. The blackmail came through the use of electric shock to guests staying at the Chauncey Conference Center who may have been HIV or simply antisemitic, anti-Jewish statehood here. My son, also (b)(6), served as a desk attendant at the hotel during school summers. I spoke to a (b)(6) about this critical information and she never really got back to me. The only person I know of who deliberately would have taken young people and replaced them with doubles was (b)(6), an examiner who

	created Latin and English tests. She would have been a kind of gypsy trader removing HIV individuals to create a Prisoner of War encampment environment to pay back for the Holocaust. She also no doubt has White Slavery connections to imprint the idea of Jewish biblical slavery also in the minds of Americans. To the best of my knowledge, the Trenton-Mercer Airport, which side I am not sure, makes runs to collect new slave

Complaint Info Comments	(Product Name: Graduate Record Examinations) I was denied entrance to the GRE because they said that my military ID didn't count, since I am not in active duty. My father sponsored me to get this ID, and it is a valid and functional ID, and on the ETS website it says that it should count as appropriate primary identification, as it has a recent photograph and my signature. When I tried to use my student ID, that was also denied, even though on the website it says that it counts as appropriate secondary identification. Their policy of only accepting military IDs from active duty members is not stated anywhere on their site or in any of the mail-outs; this is the first time I have ever heard of such a policy. I have e-mailed, called, and faxed in my complaints, but they refuse to reschedule my exam or refund my money. Furthermore, their representatives are extremely unhelpful, and have gone so far as to criticize me for not having additional IDs (such as a driver's license).

Complaint Info Comments	(Product Name: Praxis Testing Procedures for Teacher Certification) The Better Business Bureau has also been notified on various levels for the monopoly that this organization has for those seeking teacher certification in most states in the United States. They offer multiple levels of their tests which states require for certification. The level of difficulty for these tests are extreme. They are beyond the levels of elementary, middle and high school teacher programs offered in applicable university curriculums. The amount of revenue that this organization bills each teacher certification candidate is a total monopoly on the system. There are no other tests available for candidates to pass so each must continue to re-take the Praxis exams.

Complaint Info Comments	(Product Name: GRE General Exam) I paid a $160 fee to take an exam. On the day of the exam, my allergies had incapacitated me. I notified ETS and their vendor (Prometric) that I had missed the test due to a personal issue. After being told various procedures and given different numbers to call and numbers to fax doctor's notes to I was eventually told that, "... I would not be given a refund and that ETS did not accept letters from doctors." The nameless and arrogant author of the email told me that, "You must be in the hospital or have suffered a death in the immediate family." I was warned by a Prometric employee named JR that, "ETS is a master of giving people the run-around...ETS purposely sends people back to Prometric in order to wear them out knowing full well that Prometric merely schedules the exams. I cannot tell you how many people call here complaining about their customer service." Indeed, this exactly what ETS did to me. I argue that if ETS admits that their subjective standard of "hospitalization" or "death in the immediate family" is a basis for someone to qualify for a refund for missing a test, then that subjective standard

	needs to be held up for critical examination. Not all parties may be incapacitated by a death in the immediate family. In fact, some may even find encouragement by the event. All parties may not have been hospitalized for events that prohibited or inhibited them from taking an exam. Under ETS' criteria, an individual that was hospitalized for an alcohol overdose and missed the exam would be eligible for a refund. Moreover, an individual that committed an act to bring about the death of an immediate relative would be eligible for a refund from ETS. In closing, ETS has purposely created unfair hurdles to prevent consumers from exercising their reasonable rights. ETS also is engaging in tactics that exhaust the perceived rights of the consumer. Their contractual wording and their actions are not one in the same....they not only k

Complaint Info Comments	In order to study in an English speaking country, one needs to verify that one speaks English. This is what ETS offers as a service. The problem is, first, this company has very little competition (a lot of market power) so that they can decide when and how much to charge. The test cost me USD 140 in November 2005. My opinion is that this company misuses its market power in the following form: they decide unilaterally that the test is only valid for two years; as you may notice, I can speak English; I should be able to decide if I want to send my scores (which are more than two years old now), but I cannot, I must comply with their arbitrary rules; I must pay nonsensically 180 USD, to take another test, which is just like the other, for a service I do neither need nor want. I find this constitutes an abuse of power, to which all none-native english speakers need to submit in order to study in the US or UK or whatever. I hope you can do something about, thanks.. Complaint Info Comments	This company is advertising for postal jobs. They are not affiliated with the USPS. They claim for this money; they will register the applicant for the postal exam. They also claim they have a copy of the 256 questions used on this exam. This is not possible. I work for the Postal Service. None of our exams, to my knowledge have exactly 256 items. This company guarantees they will get the consumer a job within 30 miles of where they live for pay of 18 to 20 dollars per hour or an annual income of $57,000 with overtime. Again this kind of pay may be possible but is unlikely for an entrance applicant at least initially. They also claim that they will refund the initial money of $99.50 (not $119) if the person is not hired after getting invited to an interview.

She has passed all four sections of the test, he states that the administration of the test is bad, they are never on time to give the test, it was winter and there wsas no heating in the testing building wich puts unnessesary stress on the test taker. He states that he believes they make it so no one can pass all parts of the test at the same time. He doesnt feel their scoring systm is fair and their administration is unfair and deceatful. He feels they are a manopoly because this is the only agency that gives this test. He wants to keep his wifes name annonymous because she is still trying to pass this test. The NABT is requiring her to get this certificate through ETS.

Complaint Info Comments	I am interested in a position with USPS. I found a posting on craigslist.com for postal jobs, there was a link that gave me an 800# to call. The gentleman told me that a packet would be sent out, once I filled out the application, I would be contacted about a testing day, then once my score was received, I would be contacted for an interview. They offer a full refund if you do not pass the test, or get a job with the first interview. I am in need of a higher paying job in this economy, so I paid it with high hopes. When looking at the USPS website they have no listings for test dates, this made me skeptical, so I started to look around and one woman posted that she never received her packet and could not get anyone on the phone. Now I'm concerned that I made a mistake. The postal service does not support companies like Netspan Group, because they want to see what people can do without outside help for the tests.

Complaint Info Comments	Someone might make arbitrary changes for my TOEFL score. There are two problems. One is about the score when I took the TOEFL on November 2, 2007. Two is about all the score since I claimed, on December 2007, June, August. At first, in the case of November 2, 2007, the monitor screen disappeared for a while during the test. And from lower right corner, small pop-up message appeared. Apparently, this condition was strange. When I received the score, I claimed it by email. But I did not receive the answer. Although I inquired about the trouble by email, I did not receive any enough reply. Since the claim, my score has been being skeptical. I called for customer center on September 19, 2008. But, Mark just repeated that all scores are correct. Complaint Info Comments	I am a graduating senior at the University of Arkansas at Pine Bluff. My major is Early Childhood Education. In order to graduate I have to pass parts of this specific test. I have taken the Praxis II test four times and out of the four times I have made a 158 twice in a row on a written hand scored test. I do believe that this company is not grading these tests appropriately. This company will not let students see what they made on the hand scored test, the only way to get the test rescored is to call in and pay a $30 fee and have them mail in if you passed or not. I do not believe that it is fair for students to have to pay $140 or above to take a test only to have someone over the phone to state if you passed it or not. I believe that it is my right to see my tests in person to make sure that they are not just giving me my same grade from previous tests. I believe if you pay for something even as expensive as this test, I should have the right to view my test in person and have it explained to me how it was graded and how to improve next time. My complaint is that ETS is not being fair to test takers in letting us review our scores and when you call them they seem to give you the run around and not have answers that you need. They ask if you would like to buy material from them or pay to have your scores rescored for an additional fee, instead of finding a way to solve your problems and I do believe that it is holding many great teachers back as well as taking our money.. Complaint Info Comments	ICCC Ref #:I0904261828515991. I contacted you earlier on this day with what i thought was all of the information that i could find, after doing somemore researching i found out that this has been going longer than i first realized. As far as i can tell this has been ongoing since the first of the year, on the following dates(01-21-09,02-18-09,possible sometime in 03-01-09 to 03-30-31-09 to 04-25-09)this may have been going on much longer but i am not sure if it has. To the best of my knowledge i never signed up for any of this and even on the ETS'S home page they have posted a fraud warning so appearently this has been an ongoing problem that they are well aware of.

Complaint Info Comments	I was asked to pay 245USD for TOEFL test and rescheduling of the TOEFL test on 9 May 2009. I arrived in time and had done all the required procedures, however, the test was cancelled due to technical problems. We were not given information and kept on waiting with no certainty for more than one hour, until the test was cancelled. Refund process was so hard, especially since I have to call to the US from Switzerland that costs me a lot of money. Finding the telephone number took much time as well. During the phone with the customer service, complete information could not be given. I asked about the refund process, and the only information obtained was that I have to wait for any phone call by the company. I asked for a time limit or time needed for the process, but no answer was given. The company only inform that 'We don not know how long it will take'. I have done all my obligations, and I have paid the amount of money without being provided with the service I asked. I asked for a refund and the information was not given clearly. I have spent time, money, and sacrifice other things to manage this issue, with no concrete outcome. I lost the

Complaint Info Comments	I was looking for USPS jobs online and the screen flashed..USPS Hiring call 188-910-9941 Ref#PWEB.So I called the number and Ms Dumas Asked me a few questions and said I was eligible to apply.I explained that I was only interested in a nighttime position And she named some of the positons that I could apply for (I have a copy of the whole Conversation that I asked them to send me)I followed the instuctions and there has not been a listing for any of these positions since they said I had to pay a 1 time refundable fee so that they knew that I was a serious candidate. I since have called them several times letting them know that I had been very clear about only being able to work in the evenings and the positions that they recommended have not come up,so how can I give an exam when I cannot even apply.I went to a local post office in Houston ,Tx and they have closed down there night shifts.I called Netspan back and said I wanted my money back since there is no hope for me getting a job.They said I had to wait six months but it has been nearly 5 months and there are no jobs.They said the only way I can get my money back is if I failed the exam and so I applied 2 weeks ago to what ever position was available to go fail the exam and I still have not heard anything.I do not understand why they will not give me my money back .They keep passing me to the next representative,no manager will call me back when I leave a message.They keep giving me the runaround when they have cheated me out of my money.First I thought it was the USPS then they said Netspan Group but the way I was advised step by step I did not think they were not connected.I have called them atleast 8 times or more give and take.Then I read about this fraud on your website and realised they are doing it again.I know you cannot represent an individual but can you advise me what you can do and if anyone else can help me.sincerely,(b)(6)

Complaint Info Comments	I needed to send my Praxis test score report to the Kansas State Department of Education (KSDE) and was charged $40.00 to do so. In addition I was given a 'complimentary' copy sent to my personal email address. Charging $40.00 to send electronic confirmation (or a mailed copy) to an institution seems to be a clear case of price gouging or profiteering. I asked to speak with a manager regarding the price and I was spoken to disrespectfully and told I had already had a $40 fee waived due to 'adjusting account information' and told I can disagree, but that did not matter. I requested some type of explanation for the extreme price to send a document that at most would cost 45 cents, but was given none. The 'adjustment' he referred to occurred during the previous call when the representative asked for my email address. I initially declined the request, but was told it was needed to send my complimentary free report. (I did not request a report, but was offered one for free.) During this previous call I waited for a while on the phone while the score recipient's number was looked up. Due to a slow connection on their end I was asked to

	get online and look up the score for the representative. Their website was running slowly and I was unable to do so and was told to call back. In short: Profiteering ($40.00 to send a very brief document or electronic notice.) Manipulative managerial behavior. Inconvenience by being asked to do part of the job of the representative AND needing to call back. This seems very unethical, if not illegal depending on local and state laws. Sincerely, (b)(6) PS9000: Testing Services Other-Other Update

ETS did not gave any information as to how such thing happened that without my consent how did they charged my card account second time which according to federal laws are serious offence and due to all these things i have suffered a lot both financially and mentally .I want to know what can i do in this regard if ETS refused to do any thing also as i am from India what are my rights and obligations also if you did not deal with it whom should i approach. Complaint Info Comments	send several mails requesting ETS to pay heed to my concern but they remain ignorant about the whole matter trying to hide the major fault on their side. But lastly when i suggested the ETS to perform manual reconciliation and suggest them some steps to to figure out the mistake they finally replied to me and simply said that they are refunding back me 10 US $. Now the point is not of only 10 $ but the point is why the ETS used my credit card information to charge my account for 190 $ without my authorization. They have compromised my credit card information and my financial and social security also if this is their attitude and way of working they are compromising the security of millions of innocent American people. I have to bear heavy financial losses as for many days my credit card's credit limit remain blocked due to which i was unable to perform necessary transactions and also in order to claim my 10 $ and to brought the matter to their knowledge i have to invest money and time and above all after all this i feel i have been mentally harassed and ETS never expressed any apology or tried to give compensation to me although mistake was totally is of ETS. And we can not regard this as mistake but it is duping and financial misconduct. I have record of all the mails and electronic correspondence with the ETS please give me some mail id so that i can forward all those on that. I have full faith in US laws and i am confident enough that your countryman will help me in this regard.

Complaint Info Comments	ICCC Ref #:I1003161728004012. I had an unauthorized purchase on my account when I call stated it was authorized and paid by my bank and I would have to deal with my bank. I told t business with their company and did not authorize any charges to my account, to this Mr. Ho matter the bank authorized the transaction you have to deal with your bank not with us&quot business of processing fraudulent transactions and he stated &quot;if it was authorized by my you have any complaints you should call your bank or have them call me&quot;. In the mean filed a claim with my bank which may take up 90 days to clear up. Is this a crime or just a lo companies with the ability to obtain account information to generate revenue and hold it as l is able to reclaim said revenue. If this was a case of an individual using fraudulent informati why would they not put every effort into correcting this problem? Instead their efforts are pl to claim of the revenue regardless of its source. At no time was I asked my name or date of tl amount, however it was made perfectly clear that as long as my bank paid the transaction wa not be the only victim of this company if this dollar value is comparative even on a small sca 160.00 that's 16,000.00. I believe somehow my card information was stolen and sold as I hac account along with this one. The other vendor provided a refund immediately upon confirma charge. Yet this vendor refuses to provide any information and denies that the charge is unau my name?

Complaint Info Comments	This company schedules testing for our university. WE had requested a test date of April 17th and paid the $80.00. On April 17th we went to the facility for the test to be informed it was scheduled for March 17th and we had forfeited our $80.00. After numerous long phone calls we were told if we wanted to take the test we had to pay another $80.00. I paid this then disputed the first $80.00 charge with my credit card company. When we called to get out test scores we were told we could not have them unless we paid another $80.00. I told them the charge was in the dispute process and they said they didnt care. I ultimately paid again as they were holding her scores hostage. I believe that this was not only immoral but illegal as they should have to go through the dispute process legally rather then hold my scores hostage and charge me again.. I paid 120.00 for a test, I canceled the test 2 days prior to being able to take it, There was nothing on the web site that stated I would forfeit my 120.00. if the refund policy was made available I would not have canceled, the only information that pops up prior to canceling is a box asking if you have reviewed the policy, but it is not available to review.. Complaint Info Comments	I am a disabled American student who has been having difficulty arranging to take the Graduate Record Exam with reasonable accommodations due to my visual disabilities. Although I am also deaf in one ear, I did not request any accommodations because of my partial deafness. I am very unhappy with ETS' treatment. I believe ETS does not care about American students with disabilities. I am unsatisfied with their lack of service. I am frustrated that I am unable to find another organization to take The Graduate Record Exam (GRE) through other than ETS. I have earned a Bachelor of Science and Master of Science with 3.90 GPA despite the challenges that I have had and my dream is earn the PhD, yet I have to take the GRE through a company that has no compassion toward American disabled students before I am able to begin my PhD studies. When I started my educational journey, I had to decide if I should go to (a) a junior college, (b) four years university where the highest level of education that can be achieved is a Bachelor of Science, (c) six year university where the highest level of education that could be achieved is a Master of Science, or (f) an eight year

university where the highest level education that could be achieved is PhD. After weighting my options, I decided to go with option (a) junior college. Once I made this decision, I needed to decide which junior college to attend; so I asked myself, do I want (1) choose a college near home, (2) choose a college away from home? I chose to remain in my home state of California, but away from my family. I was raised believing that I have many choices in life and I am responsible for my decisions. The fact is that I was only able to find one option – (d) to take the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) through one private organization, Educational Testing Service (ETS) – is UNAMERICAN. This unpleasant truth is against my American values. I have always believed that competition between businesses forces companies to provide the best goods and services. I cannot believe that ETS is the only company in the entire nation willing to administer the GRE to our country's students.. Complaint Info Comments	This company is an unregulated monopoly that only answers to its board of trustees. 39 states use this company for testing of teachers, psychologist, police officers and other professionals. ETS charges excessive amounts of money, asks questions that are biased to certain test takers and is not regulated by anyone. This monopoly will continue to grow and the public will have no choice but to use this unregulated service as forced by the 39 states and ETS. The only hope is the FTC...please help.. Complaint Info Comments	Ive had nothing but problems with this company - First, I called on 711 and attempted to reschedule an exam on . I was told my card was rejected when, in fact, there was a hold for $160 on my account. I called them back about this and they told me I could either wait for the hold to expire or use a different card to reschedule - I only have one card so this was not an option. Four days later the charge expired (714) and I called back to reschedule again. This time I was successful. However, I was supposed to receive a $110 refund for rescheduling. My account was refunded $80 on 718. I called 719 to complain and was told the refund process was two steps - $80 refund for half the exam total and then $30 is to come separately. The net amount charge is to reflect the $160 for the test plus a $50 rescheduling fee (160-110=50). I was told to simply wait for the rest of the money to show up in my account and to call back if I didn't see it "after a while." Their website has absolutely nothing on it mentioning anything about this convoluted refund process. It merely states that there is a $50 rescheduling fee. ETS needs to POST their policies in full.. PS9000: Educational

I failed to make a testing date because I was

Complaint Info Comments	promised parking (per website info and phone call) and not advised that the ONLY parking available has a height restriction that denies access to most suvs, trucks and conversion vehicles for the disabled. I arrived an hour early to find I could not park,the area did not allow street parking and ended up finding parking 10 blocks away after searching the area for about 30 minutes. I am disabled and arrived 3 minutes late and was denied access. I paid again,reapplied and asked for ADA accommodations. ETS stalled my application multiple times until I sent a letter notifying them that I was fully aware that the new laws forbid them to demand that I be re-tested for disabilities for which I had already provided a long (10-15 years) medical history. Then, (despite finding out later that my testing accommodations were NO different from everyone elses), I was told I could not have any of the still open dates on the calendar that would meet my deadline, they forced me to wait several more weeks to test. I later called back, without giving my name, and was offered earlier dates that would have fit my schedule. During my test, others were admitted to begin throughout the entire test, distracting the testing progress.Test-takers talked and chattered, despite rules and employees refused my requests to ask them to stop. I was told by a phone rep after the first date, that, under the circumstances, their failure to accurately describe parking limitations, especially disabled parking, that I would be refunded my first fee if I wrote a letter. I have written 5 letters to date and have gotten no response. ETS blames Prometric, Prometric blames ETS, ETS OWNS Prometric. Given that I was not provided an appropriate test-taking environment I would like to have BOTH test fees returned. ETS did not deliver the services as they were promised. This company should be ashamed of the way they treat people!

Complaint Info Comments	NOTE: In addition to the complaint notes immediately below, the Ohio Attorney General's Office provided additional information in fields whose header titles are quoted and follow the complaint notes. --- Refund full amount paid for service or allow me to test. --- Topic Description: To whom it may concern: My name is Vincent Jamal Hall and ETS Testing Service is not allowing me to take the GRE test because my State of OHIO issued identification does not match the registration EXACTLY. ETS request when registering a full first name, middle INITIAL, and last name, this is both on the online registration and on page 31 of the registration booklet. My STATE ISSUED ID (see attached) is printed ? (b)(6) ? I need 5 characters to input my middle name as printed to have my ID and registration match exactly; ETS only provides 1 character space. IT IS NOT POSSIBLE WITH THE CURRENT REGISTRATION METHODS TO HAVE THE TWO MATCH EXACTLY!!! Since 7:50 this morning on the 20th of April I have argued for an hour requesting to either be allowed to receive the service I paid for or be given a full refund of the testing fees. This discussion was had at 1 800 473 4373 with John (id# 61232) and his supervisor James Harrison who was

	more concerned with touting his power than in finding any possible solution. James's solution was to re-register typing in exactly as it was listed on my id. When I explained to him it would be (b)(6) on the ETS registration and still (b)(6) (b)(6) on my STATE ISSUED ID which would still not match his reply was ?Can you change your ID?? Really!!! If the purpose of an ID is to CONFIRM IDENTITY it cannot be changed on a whim especially to match the policies of a testing service. Ironically I have had this same id since I was 16 and have tested with the same id in the past. But it only becomes an issue that my first name is on it as an initial now??? I am also filing a complaint with the Ohio Attorney General office for theft. This situation is ridiculous and should never have happened. ETS has a monopoly and is abusing their power with their policies.

I was informed that she would be paying via a check and that the movers would be sent over once the check cleared. In an email a few days later I was informed that the check would be sent via fed-ex and that once it cleared that I should use the extra money from the check to pay the movers. It was at this point in time I told her that I saw multiple red flags and wanted a phone call before this transaction could go any further. I was not called and was sent another email telling me that I would now receive an additional $100 extra for the item. At which point I replied that if she wanted the item the transaction must be done in person and with cash. This morning I received a $3,000 check and was told that $500 of it was for the item, $100 of it was extra for my troubles and $2,400 was to be sent to the movers via moneygram to this address, Tai Chang 6345 Collins Ave Richardson, TX 75081. According to the fed-ex receipt the check was sent from, BSHE 1518 Clifton Road Atlanta, GA 30322. (origin id: SSIA (404) 727-3968) I called the number on the return address and the person I talked to told me that that scammers were using her number for these fake checks and she had received several calls with people in my same situation one of which actually did what the scammer said and was out $2,000. It was at this point in time I called my local Police Department and was referred by them to this web site. I still have the uncashed check, the Fed-Ex Receipt, and printed records of all email correspondence.

Comments:	We researched the company and found that while they always find small errors in auditing mortgage statements from Banks, in almost zero cases is there any mortgage reduction associated with the uncovering of these simple auditing errors. We feel that the company uses misinformation and dissinformation to mislead both people who are in financial trouble, as well as the elderly in paying the 99 dollars for an audit. Their salespeople tell you that if errors are not found the 99 dollars will be reimbursed. They lead one to believe that finding these errors will guarantee a refund for the ones paying a mortgage. This is false, yes some errors will always be found, and in almost zero cases will a refund be given. This is deceptive practice, and false advertising.. Comments:	My wages have been garnished without any notice whatsoever to me. I only make 2100.00 a month teaching school. My last paycheck was 343.00 short. When I called payroll to report my check was not the correct amount, I was informed that my wages had been garnished due to a student loan. Now, I only borrowed 24,000 total. My income taxes have been withheld from me for the last 4 years along with any stimulus moneys from 1999 because of this debt. In addition to those amount, I was paying William D. Ford 50.00 a month on my student loans. I quit paying when I called the dept of ed 1 800 number and found that my name and social security number and address do not match. It was at that time I requested documentation from Dept of ed about the wrong balance on my account as well as proof of my payments. I never received either! Then in 2008 NCO financial collection agency begin calling me at my school, and telling me horrifying things, such as my house would be under lock and key when I tried to get in my home I would find that it was now owned by the federal government. I have continuoulsy requested a hearing to settle this student loan mess, 8 times I have requested the hearing, 8 times I have filled out the financial statement. I am a single mother living in 150% of poverty level. I did make 2100. a month to support myself and my son, his father is deceased and I only draw 125.00 month ssi benefits because he did not pay in enough quarters for my son to draw anymore. Then on Sept 10 my paycheck was 343.00 short, without any notice. Please help me. I cannot even afford propane for heating this month and we are freezing. thank you (b)(6)

Comments:	To Whom it may concern: My name is (b)(6), I work for 101st Sustainment Brigade Legal. A few weeks ago I posted on www.craigslist.com my wife and mines extra Queen size bed for sale for $500 OBO. I got an email from the individual CC'd that he was interested in purchasing the bed. He UPS'd a check from ACT Inc for the amount of $3350. He asked that we cash the check, taking our $500 plus 15% for cashing fees and Western Union the remaining balance to: Steven Lee7821 Dayton StDetroit, MI 48210This is where my first Red Flag went off. We brought the check to a bank and they said that they have seen the check before and it was part of a scam. I have other correspondence with this individual on our home computer, if any agency needs to access it, my wife and I would be more than happy to help. I would like to see this individual apprehended and I am asking that this be forwarded to the proper authorities. (b)(6) Legal NCOSStrike Fear Sir!. PS9000: Craigslist

Comments:	Hello, How are you doing today?Thanks for your coorporation in this transaction....As a matter fact the deal is on and according to the accountant, the check has already been sent out to you...the payment was sent via FEDEX....Here is Fedex tracking number of the package(796651349506) for the payment So the payment will deliever to you today first thing in the morning.And as soon as you get the payment,i guess you know how to handle everything.But there was a little mistake which i guess we can handle with amicably. When i contacted the account department to know maybe the check has already been sent ,i got to know that there was a misinterpretation while sending the check. The problem occur because, i am paying with my SALARY and i told them to issue out a check in your name for the amount and the rest will be written in my name for the rest of my SALARY but all the money as i think was sent to you.According to the instruction i gave them,he was suppose to have send you a check of the actual amount of the Canon W8400 Wide-Format Printer - $4000) but in the process he made a mistake by sending all my SALARY.He claimed that he though i said he should send you a check for the amount of ($8600) But that should not disturb our own transaction and i am sure we would both handle this. So this is what i think we would do ,once you receive the check, you should cash it immediately and also do deduct $100 for run around expenses,and you will easily forward the extra money directly to my shipper in cash immediately. it can be sent via MONEY GRAM INTERNATIONAL TRANSFER.or WESTERN UNION MONEY TRANSFER..Originally,i had in mind to collect the rest of the money and use the money to pay the shipper since the shipper is also picking some other items for me at various locations.Pls let me know your schedule so that he will know the best time to come for the pick up on that monday and do take good care of goods till he comes.I guess i can be confident in you that you can handle it with trust and have it sent to my shipper. Here is the name and address to send the money to: Name.....Alicia BryantADDRESS.....7116 Floyd Street NECITY.....LithoniaSTATE.....GeorgiaZIPCODE.....30038 He is due to be come to your location anytime from now and has informed me that the only thing holding him up is the shipping funds.Afterward i will require the following info from you.....1. The name and address of the sender.2. The amount sent. (After deducting the transfer Charges).3.Transfer Refrence Number(IF MONEY GRAM)4.MTCN # (IF WESTERN UNION)Please deduct the transfer charges from the amount you want to send to the shipper .Dont forget to send me the map quest to your locationfor easy passage to the shipper.kindly get back to me asap.Go to WAL-MART with cash to enable you make the transfer Thanks.. Comments:	ICCC Ref #:10905061020311521. I did not fall for it. I was selling a car on c-list and I got an email from this lady saying that she wanted the cat and she was sending out a check. I did not trust her so I ended up selling the car to another guy who paid cash. I got a check from ups yesterday for 5000.00 and I was only asking 3750.00. She did say that the check would be for more so it would cover all shipping costs. I called the bank and they said that they hand sign each check(no stamps or anything else) and the signature on this check is computer imaged.

Comments:	They filed a Judgment against me in Cook County Illinois No. 07M31516. I paid the balance in full last June 2008. This is not reflected on my credit report and they are not responsive to my calls. This is affecting my credit score and I need this taken care of. I have paid my debt to them and now I need it reflected in my credit report. It says "Date Resolved" as N/A and it should reflect the correct date that I resolved and my balance was 0.

	(Product Name: SAT report) I ordered a copy of my SAT scores from the College Board on 11/09/06.My scores are 15y/o, which confused my CSR about what the charges should be.It was resolved that the charges $27 total.Since my CSR was so confused,I stated repeatedly that I wanted NON-expedited delivery.I checked my account balance the next day & saw that I was charged $57.50.I called to complain, but the College Board CSR refused to believe that I'd not ordered the expedited service (for a charge of $26.50,) & told me of other charges that were not specified by the 1st CSR ($9.50-phone service, $5-scores older than 5 years.)I said it was fraudulent to charge me more than was agreed upon, & asked for a manager.The manager tried to minimize my concerns about the delivery upgrade & unauthorized charges.I would not be put off.He then tried to say that since I had given the College Board my credit card

Complaint Info Comments	number, I could be charged whatever they felt like charging.I told him that charging me more than was agreed on was fraud, & that I expected resolution, or I would pursue legal remedies. He then said that this was "how we do business," to which I repeated the illegal and fraudulent nature of such practices. He then said that he would file an internal complaint for me, & that I could expect an answer within 3-5 days.They never got back to me.Because of the extra charges, I have incurred $70(2x$35)in bounced check fees.My checkbook is balanced, but I don't have much wiggle room to cover unexpected charges.So in total, my 15-year-old SAT scores will end up costing me $128.50, ($70-bounced check fees, $17.50 score retrieval, $41 for delivery and assorted mystery charges.)Being charged this much for one score report is unfair.I would propose that any resolution involve a full restitution of the extra $31.50 charge and the $70 in bounced check fees.I also think the College Board should be punished. Please help me make that happen.

Complaint Info Comments	(Product Name: Billing dispute regarding an SAT test) My daughter took an SAT test in May and in June. When I finally got thru to the company (No reply to first email in July, phone number was not working for two different tries), I was told a rep would call me in three days. The company has TERRIBLE procedures in place for problem resolution. I was asked to give an email password they had given my daughter, etc. Info usually no one keeps. I did get the password from my daughter, then after all that, the rep could not really help me. I guess they are "screeners." If you can stand all the hoops you have to jump thru, you can talk to someone. So finally, I am told they cannot do anything about the situation. I was told I would get a call later from the company rep. Guess what? I never got the call later. Isn't that funny? They can keep billing me and what can I do? Nothing. By the way, the invoice number is E12241848 the Customer number is 907037837. I received a May and an August statement. No, my daughter did not sign up for a Sunday test. The slip said Saturday. But I do not want other people to be unfairly billed either. Please contact me if I can help further. Cell phone and email are good ways to reach me. Aloha, (b)(6)

Complaint Info Comments	(Product Name: PSAT/SAT) When College Board administers the PSAT & SAT, they ask the children (some as young as 14) to check a box if they want to share their personal information. College Board then sells that information. The parents are never consulted. Last year, my daughter's information was sold, even though she did not check the box. I complained and received assurances that her name was removed from the database. It happened again this year. College Board is exploiting children. They are not getting parental approval to sell the children's personal information and obviously do not have the ability to protect the children after the information is sold. They do this with the consent of the NYC Department of Education, who told me to take the problem up with you. Please make College Board stop exploiting children!

Complaint Info Comments	I posted a drum set for sale on Craig's List for $350. This person contacted me via email to say he wanted to buy it, he would send me a check and his shipper would come by for the item. I was supposed to receive a check for $2,350, cash it and forward the remaining money on through Western Union. It sounded suspect and I didn't respond. today I received a check for the $2,350 from the company "College Board." That was when I started to get suspicious that something was wrong.

I have been in the process of applying to complete

Complaint Info Comments	my undergraduate degree (education got put on hold to serve my country - 20 years Air Force, Retired), and when I went to get my old SAT scores I was shocked and outraged at the College Board's fee structure. All the other institutions that I requested scores or transcripts from were under $10 (most were under $5), the College Board charged me $37.50. Their fees are completely out of line for "not for profit" (http://www.collegeboard.com/about/index.html) status and I believe are the direct result of their monopolistic marketplace. Because there are only two organizations that provide college readiness assessment testing, they seem to think it's okay for them to charge obscene fees and the consumer is forced to pay due to collusionary practices with the colleges and universities that require these tests as part of their application process. I'm okay with them covering their costs, but I believe that these fees are actually generating a profit for them and as such I challenge their "not for profit" status. The bottom line is that the government is supposed to protect consumers from monopolistic and fraudulent practices and I believe The College Board should be investigated on both points.. Complaint Info Comments	ICCC Ref #:I0906120425485471. Was contacted by person who wanted to purchase dress from craigslist add. Person sent same email for multiple dress we had for sale. Was ambiguous about which dress and sent check for 1700.00 when dress was listed at $150.00. email said to keep $50.00 and give rest to shipper for their fees I did not try to cash check. I contacted Muskegon Township Police when I received the check as I knew this was most likely a scam. My report number is 09-2241. I gave the check to the officer and emailed the emails that were sent back and forth to the officer also

Complaint Info Comments	The FTC should investigate the fees that the College Board charges students to send their test scores for all tests. I believe that there is no relationship between the College Board's actual costs and how much they charge to send scores. Additionally, I believe they slow down score reporting as the date for certain deadlines comes up, so that more students are forced to pay the supposed "rush" fees. For example, on November 3, 2009, I ordered scores sent by "regular reporting" for $9.50, to a college. When I checked later, the scores were sent as of three days later, November 6, 2009. Then on November 24, 2009, just before a December 1, 2009 deadline, I ordered scores sent to a school by "regular," for $9.50. By November 30, 2009, the College Board web site was reporting that that score report was still "pending." I called and was told, "oh sorry, as we say in the tiny print, "regular" can take up to two weeks, you should have paid for "rush" for the extra $27.00, IN ADDITION TO ANOTHER $9.50 to get the scores to the college by the December 1, 2009 deadline. As such, I was forced to pay

	an additional $36.50. Moreover, they give you four free reports, but require you to identify those schools months before the student knows where they want their scores sent. Then if you take the test again, you start all over and pay again. This is supposed to be non-profit, and they are sticking it to people and just because they "waive fees" for poor students, is no excuse to scam the rest.. Complaint Info Comments	The College Board started contacting me in December via email regarding "my PSAT/SAT performance." I took the PSAT and SAT about 15 years ago, so I knew this was a mistake. After receiving many messages from them, I attempted to unsubscribe using an unsub link on one of their emails, but the link was broken (all subsequent unsubscribe links have likewise been faulty). I then attempted to unsubscribe by submitting a complaint to the College Board, but they told me I had to log in to their web site to unsubscribe. This is impossible for me to do, because logging in to their site would require I know my password or date of birth - but I know neither, since someone else used my email address to subscribe to their mailings. I don't know the password or date of birth of this person who has stolen my email address. I tried to explain this to the College Board, but their only response was to again tell me I had to log in to unsubscribe. After two months, I still receive their SPAM, and now they have sold their lists to every college and university in the United States, so I am also receiving those colleges' and universities' SPAM solicitations as well. I am willing to pursue legal action if the College Board does not remove my email address from their mailing list.. PS9000:

Complaint Info Comments	I listed a snowboard on craigslist on 82911 for $850 and immediately received an email from Melissa Bynum stating she wanted the item and would be sending a cashiers check. The next day, I received a UPS package Next Day Air, Early AM with the acct # E79A25 from a Dorothy Sexton with the number (213) 713-0831 and the address: 45 Columbus Avenue, New York, NY 10023. The check was in the amount of $2850.50 and was a Citibank company check for College Board at the same address. I received a second email stating Ms. Bynums agent mistakingly sent her entire check and because she was deaf, she was hoping I could return the overage to her movers at the following: Sabrina Weekes, 13 David Road, Pensacola, FL 32501 via Western Union. I did only to later learn this was a scam. A police report was filed (incident # 11090044) with Rincon Police Dept (officer Terry Gordon) on 9/11/11. I have contacted UPS to alert them of the account users scheme (if legitimate) and am now notifying you. I can be reached at (b)(6) My understanding is this is a scheme that is being used on Cragislist across the nation. This incident has caused

He sends a CHECK of $2250, complete obvious scam. He tells me to cash it, then refund him whatever money is left because his "secretary" sent the wrong amount. Obviously I did not cash the check because otherwise I would be down $1900 and that isn't very fun. I have two checks from him, chat logs and email logs. This guy shouldn't be able to do this. I am willing to help as much as possible/needed to punish this guy. A lot of people will fall for this popular scam, and he should definitely be stopped before he does anyone harm. Please contact me ASAP.

NOTE: In addition to the complaint notes immediately below, the Complaint Info Comments	Ohio Attorney General's Office provided additional information in fields whose header titles are quoted and follow the complaint notes. --- Briefly describe what you would consider a reasonable resolution to your complaint: A complete refund of all three testing fees and a forwarding of her January 2011 scores to the same four colleges selected each time she paid to take the test, including the January test. As the College Board's SAT score is a requirement for almost all college applications, they have an even greater responsibility to provide the services people pay for. In this instance, they did not do their job. Further, their lack of response conveys a certain amount of arrogance that is totally inappropriate. My daughter requested her scores be sent. Their online application acknowledged her choices. Yet they didn't sent the reports and are unwilling to do so without additional payment that by now is too late to do any good. I can provide copies of emails sent for the first two testings, but I don't know how I can prove a negative for no third test mailing. --- Topic Description: Describe the transaction and your complaint.: My daughter (b)(6) signed up to take the January 2011 SAT exam. This was the 3rd time she took it in trying to improve her score. The College Board did not forward her test results to her four selected colleges. Further, and contrary to their normal procedure, they did not notify us by email that their records did not indicate any college selections had been made. This is contrary to (b)(6) going through the online process to select her schools and the College Board online application acknowledging her selection. When I called on 03/11/11 to resolve the issue I was informed that my complaint would go to the Escalation Department. I received a call from ?Denise? in the Escalation Department on 03/15/11. She claimed their system showed nothing regarding schools selected. She also acknowledged she could find no reminder email sent to us regarding college selection. She said she would speak with her supervisor and call me in the morning on 03/16/11. She never called back. I left two voice messages asking her to call me as promised on 03/16/11 and 03/17/11. No response at all. When I tried calling the main number (866-756-7346) I was told that it was out of the rep's hands since it went to escalation. They could provide no phone numbers. And if I wanted any January scores sent it would cost me $47 per school. My daughter did significantly improve her test score. Because of their failure to provide for services paid for the College Board's lack of action has potentially cost my daughter an additional $10,000 in merit scholarship at one school, $4,800 at another.

I told her I did not feel comfortable to discuss anything further with her until I had her complete name and business name.. I also wanted to know how she got our number because it is unlisted. Other Information Comments	Person presents himself as calling from the official "College Board" or the SAT college entrance test people, which is why I answered the phone. He knows the name of my son (who is registered for a SAT test) and asks if he needs more prep time. Wants info from me. When asked what he is calling for, gives some "prep school" like excuse. If you ask more questions, he gets sarcastic and hangs up on you. This is NOT the College Board.
